Dated 25th November 1898
To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore
Munzrai Department

Sir

Adverting to para 2 of Government Pro number 718 dated 17th December 1897, I have the honor to submit herewith for sanction an estimate, together with plan for the urgent repairs to the temple of Prasanna Anjaneya Swamy at Sidlaguttu amounting to rupees 188/ received from the Amildar of Sidlaguttu with his report number 8 dated 23rd August 1898. The cost thereof may be met out of Rs. 188-12-7, being the sale proceeds of the produce of inam lands of previous years which is placed in the Government Savings Bank deposit on behalf of the institution.

2 The shrotriks who have unauthorizedly alienated the devadaya inam lands, and neglected their duty grossly have been suspended, and a notice to that effect has been served upon them. No arrangements have been made for rendering puja in the temple as it is reported that that no puja could be performed therein until after its restoration.—

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.
